Murray State College Student Eligibility and On-Campus Residency Requirement

Murray State College has a freshman residency requirement for single, under 21, enrolled in Murray State classes, freshman who live more than 30 miles from MSC campus. Any student, who has earned less than 28 credit hours, is considered a freshman for the MSC residency requirement. Students, who have earned more than 28 credit hours, live less than 30 miles from campus with a parent/guardian, or married students are not required to live on campus. Possible consideration for an exemption may exist for medical or special circumstance requests; documented medical problem which would be aggravated by living in resident housing must be certified by a medical physician. Final approval for exemption shall rest with the Director of Student Compliance. Violation of required residency may/will result in cancellation of college enrollment. Resident must participate in a food service plan. Food service plan is NOT optional. All students receiving special talent or academic scholarships who are 21 years of age or younger, single, no children, and do not provide evidence they are residing with parents or immediate family members will be required to live in resident housing. Persons meeting these conditions, but presenting evidence of medical or hardship conditions, may be exempted by the Director of Student Compliance.
