

Ann Holloway

Oklahoma State Regent Emeritus Ann Holloway was appointed by Governor Mary Fallin in May 2013 to fill an unexpired term. In May 2015, she was reappointed by Governor Fallin for a nine-year term that ended in May 2024. The state regents are the constitutional coordinating board for Oklahoma public colleges and universities, responsible for allocating state funds and setting admission standards and academic policies, among other functions.

Before her service, Holloway was appointed by Governor Frank Keating in 2000 to a nine-year term with the Regional University System of Oklahoma (RUSO) Board of Regents. Keating also appointed her to the Professional Responsibility Tribunal for the Oklahoma Bar Association. Governor Henry Bellmon also appointed Holloway to various boards and commissions.

Holloway has been active in many civic and community organizations, including the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, March of Dimes, United Way, Ardmore Little Theater, OK Jaycee Auxiliary, Committee for Small Business Owners and the Oklahoma Department of Commerce. She has also held various positions with the Oklahoma Republican Party. Holloway has been honored among the Outstanding Young Women of Oklahoma and Who's Who of Outstanding Women in America.

Holloway lives in Ardmore, Oklahoma, where she was involved in oil field equipment manufacturing for 25 years. She is currently a managing member of EAH, LLC, focusing on real estate, and president of Holloway, Inc., operating in Playa del Carmen and Tulum, Mexico, focusing on real estate, including home building. She earned an associates degree from Murray State College and was a member of Phi Theta Kappa. Holloway earned her bachelor's degree from Southeastern Oklahoma State University in Durant. She has three daughters, five grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.
