

FARMHOUSE FUNDRAISER

The Murray State College Foundation hosted a “Farmhouse Fundraiser” to raise money for the Murray State College Kindell Ag Work Ethic Scholarship. This scholarship is generally awarded to agriculture students; it allows them to work on the Murray State farm while attending school.

More than $20,000 was raised to help fund this scholarship.

THIS YEAR'S RECIPIENTS ARE:

LANE BELL

Bell is from Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. He is a freshman Animal Science major and competes on the livestock judging team.

“I am very thankful to receive this scholarship to further my education as well as learn hands-on skills from Mr. Campbell. The lessons that I’ve learned on and off the farm are ones that I will take with me for years to come.”

Being on the livestock judging team teaches me skills to make timely decisions and further contributes to my confidence in decision making.”

JACOB THOMPSON

Thompson is from Stringtown, Oklahoma. He is a sophomore Agriculture major and competes on the livestock judging team.

“I am fortunate to receive this scholarship. Working with Mr. Campbell has helped me learn a lot of new things. I feel the experiences that I’ve gained are unique to Murray; working on the farm has given me more insight in the ends and outs of agriculture.”

My time spent on the Murray farm has been by far the highlight of my time here. I encourage anyone who has the chance to work on the farm to take advantage. I sincerely thank everyone who gave me this opportunity.”

DAN HOLLEY

Holley is from Silo, Oklahoma. He is a freshman Agriculture Business major and competes on the shooting sports team.

“I have worked for other ranches and for a fencing company. This job has taught me different pieces of agriculture that I hadn’t learned before, such as learning about animal genetics. I know these experiences will help me earn a career after college.”

WALKER REDMAN

Redman is from Durant, Oklahoma. He is a freshman Animal Science major and competes on the shooting sports team.

“This scholarship means a lot to me. Working on the farm has taught me so much about farm life. I’ve learned more about cattle, but mostly swine. The new experiences are broadening my skills and will help me accomplish career goals down the road.”

CODY SMITH

Smith is from Soper, Oklahoma. He is a freshman Agriculture major and competes on the shooting sports team.

“I have worked in feedlots for the past three years. I chose to work with Mr. Campbell on the Murray farm because it allows me to learn about a different side of agriculture.”

This opportunity has given me the chance to continue my education and is opening new doors for me while doing so.”

BRODY VANDAGRIFF

Vandagriff is from Sulphur, Oklahoma. He is a freshman Agriculture Business major and competes on the shooting sports team.

“I am grateful for the chance to work at the Murray farm.

This opportunity allows me the flexibility to work around my class schedule. The Kindell Ag Work Ethic Scholarship also allows me to stay on campus to better focus on my education.”

You can continue to support this scholarship with a gift to the MSC Foundation, a non-profit 501(c)3 organization.
