

Did You See This?

Catch up on what's happening at Murray State!

Faltyn Shares Campus News, Personal Story at Chamber Banquet

INDIANS BATTLE WYNNENWOOD: PG. 10 THE REST OF THE FAIR RESULTS: PG. 13

"The press is the best instrument for enlightening the mind of man, and improving him as a rational, moral and social being." - Thomas Jefferson

September 15-21, 2022 • Tishomingo, OK • 50 Cents

Faltyn shares campus news, personal story at chamber banquet

By Tom and Mary Luker

On Saturday, Sept. 16, with approximately 325 people in attendance, Dr. Tim Faltyn, president of Murray State College (MSC), gave the keynote address at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. Faltyn's address was a personal story of his life and career, as well as his vision for Murray State College. He spoke of his love for Tishomingo and the community, and his commitment to the college's success. Faltyn also shared campus news and updates on various projects and initiatives at MSC.

THIS HOMECOMING IS FRIDAY

The annual Homecoming Parade on Friday, Sept. 16, will start at 7 p.m. in the high school parking lot. The parade will feature a variety of floats, bands, and community groups. The parade will conclude at the Chamber of Commerce building. The parade is a tradition that has been held for many years and is a great way for the community to come together and celebrate.

Chickasaw Nation announces Annual Meeting, Festival schedule

The Chickasaw Nation is pleased to announce the dates for its annual meeting and festival. The annual meeting will be held on Saturday, Oct. 1, at the Chickasaw Nation Convention Center in Muskogee, Okla. The festival will be held on Sunday, Oct. 2, at the Chickasaw Nation Fairgrounds in Muskogee, Okla. The festival will feature a variety of activities, including music, dance, and crafts.

Bivalent vaccines now available at county health department

The Johnston County Health Department is pleased to announce that bivalent COVID-19 vaccines are now available. The bivalent vaccines are designed to protect against both the original COVID-19 virus and the newer variants. The vaccines are available at the Johnston County Health Department, 1000 N. Main St., Tishomingo, Okla. The vaccines are available on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information, call (800) 371-0276 or visit the health department's website.

Table with 4 columns: Index of Regular Features, Weekend Weather, Subscription Notes, and Contact Information.

Murray State President Dr. Tim Faltyn gave the keynote speech at this year's Johnston County Chamber of Commerce's annual banquet.

President Faltyn also accepted the new Shooting Star award on behalf of Murray State College.

Click Here for the Full Story

Murray State Represents in Tishomingo Homecoming Parade

Murray State participated in Tishomingo's homecoming parade on Friday. The theme: "There's no place like Homecoming."

Dr. Faltyn followed "the yellow brick road" (aka Main Street) as Murray students handed out candy to the kids who lined the streets.

Thank You!

"It's good to see that the campus and community are energized, and I believe our best days are ahead"

- Jordyn Frazier,
Murray State College Director of Development and Affairs
Executive Director of MSC Foundation

Contest Season Begins for the Murray State Livestock Judging Team

Blaine Red and his team will compete in their first contest for the season on Friday, the 23rd, at Turner Schools in Love County, Oklahoma.

Good Luck!

Murray State Rodeo Team Hits the Road

The Murray State rodeo team headed out to compete in their first rodeo at Colby Community College in Colby, Kansas

Women's Team Wins at Home

The women's team took control of their home turf, beating Crowder College 3-0.

Both teams will play at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College on Wednesday, 21st.

The women will play at 2 p.m. and the men at 5 p.m.

Murray State College | One Murray Campus, Tishomingo, OK 73460

Unsubscribe rpeterson@mscok.edu

Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by rpeterson@mscok.edu