Martin Luther King Jr. Parade

Murray State College was a part of the HFV Wilson MLK parade in Ardmore to celebrate the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. During the parade, Aggies passed out candy, t-shirts, koozies and frisbees.

The parade started at Cardinal Park and ended at the HFV Wilson Community Center where a special ceremony took place.

Painting in the Gardens

Students enjoyed getting to showcase their creative side during Painting in the Gardens. Students were supplied with paint and a canvas to create a work of art.

The weather along with great fellowship made for a wonderful time.
