Spring Musical "Nunsense"

Murray State College, in collaboration with Ardmore Little Theatre, presented "Nunsense" this past week. This hilarious musical was performed on Murray State's campus Tishomingo and at the Murray Event Center in Ardmore.

Cast included: Casey Jones, Kierra Hendricks, Alexia Ballard, Lisa Riggle, Summer Calaway, Joan Rushing Dewees, Lee Ann Harris, Danise Gallaway and Susan Pfau Yeager.

"Nunsense" is a hilarious spoof about the misadventures of five nuns trying to manage a fundraiser.

HLC Conference

Representatives from Murray State attended the HLC Conference to learn about accreditation, teaching and learning, and improvement of higher education. The theme this year is Learn-Lead-Luminate.

They had a great time learning from the HLC and other institutions.

University of North Texas Students Visit Ardmore Campus

Marketing students from the University of North Texas visited Murray State's Ardmore campus as part of their class's economic development project.

Murray State President Dr. Faltyn shared the vision and preliminary plans for the Ardmore campus.

Gunsmithing Trip to the J.M. Davis Museum

Gunsmithing students recently took a trip to the J.M. Davis Arms and Historical Museum in Claremore, Oklahoma.

Rob Webb, Gunsmithing Adjunct Instructor, coordinates this trip each year for his American Firearm and Law

(2A Law) class.

The students were given some historical information from Jason Shubert, Museum Curator. This year, one of the guns he presented was taken off of Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd during one of the many times he was apprehended.
