MSC Shotgun Training Facility Open House

Community members came out to the College's new shotgun team training facility for a tour of the new sporting clay course and to view recent renovations.

Murray State Shotgun Team Coach Scott Robertson showed off his skills during a trick shot exhibition. Scott's wife, Wendy, conducted a women's clinic, teaching participants about gun safety.

Murray State College President Dr. Tim Faltyn welcomed more than 70 people, including four Murray State Board of Regent members who were in attendance throughout the day's activities.

Thank You!

"Thank you to members of the surrounding communities who came out to experience our renovated Shotgun Team Training Facility. We appreciate Coach Robertson and all of the volunteers and staff who made our open house a success."
