Chickasaw Hall Groundbreaking

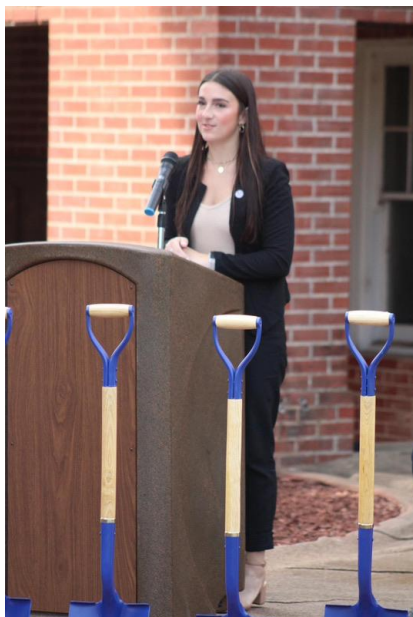

Murray State College hosted a groundbreaking ceremony for the historic Chickasaw Hall, located on Murray State's Tishomingo campus.

Ceremony speakers included:

- *President Dr. Tim Faltyn, Murray State College
- *Governor Bill Anoatubby, Chickasaw Nation
- *Charles McCall, Oklahoma Speaker of the House
- *Leslie Larsen, Vice Chair, Murray State College Board of Regents
- *Landrey Howard, Vice Chair, Murray State College Student Government Association.

Built in 1917, Chickasaw Hall is a former dormitory that housed Chickasaw and Choctaw students attending the Murray State School of Agriculture. It will soon become a space for a 14-room boutique hotel that will serve guests of the College, as well as visitors to Tishomingo and the surrounding area.

The first floor of Chickasaw Hall will feature the Chickasaw Nation Chokka Kilimpi` program for Chickasaw and other First American students, providing academic counseling, tutoring, life skills training, and graduation and career planning.

Thank You!

"Thank you to everyone who made this historic day possible and to all who celebrated with us. The day marked the partnership that has formed between federal, state, tribal and private entities to see a community transformed."

-- Dr. Tim Faltyn
Murray State College President

Board of Regents Meeting

At this week's Board of Regents meeting, students and coaches were recognized for their support and achievements.

Murray State Head Softball Coach Aaron Mullens and Assistant Coach Charli Crawford for celebrated for their coaching successes this year. They each received custom bats with their national awards engraved on them.

Murray State students Walker Redman, Dillon Simpson and Skylar Davis were recognized for their immediate assistance to a student in a medical emergency situation.

They kept the student safe until emergency professionals arrived.

Representative Josh Cantrell attended the meeting to present a citation from the House of Representatives to Assistant Softball Coach Charli Crawford in honor of her being selected as the 2023 NJCAA Division 2 Easton/NFCA Assistant Coach of the Year.
