

JOB DESCRIPTION-DEAN OF ONLINE

General Description/Primary Purpose

The Online Dean will provide leadership to develop, promote, and sustain Murray State College's online programs. Oversees operational procedures, policies, instructional development, faculty training, technical support, quality assurance, and managing MSC's enrollment and program growth as an online college. This position will oversee online marketing and advertising optimization, and collaborate with third-party vendors and both internal and external affairs to effectively coordinate and implement a strong marketing strategy for the online college.

Classification: Faculty/Administrator

Academic Rank: Instructor

Salary: Commensurate with qualifications, education, and experience, plus full fringe benefits.

Appointment: 12-month appointment

Overview: Murray State College is a small, open-door community college that provides personal growth and professional success opportunities to students of all educational backgrounds. Employees at MSC will flourish in a family-like environment that offers collegiate support and opportunities for advancement.

Located in the heart of the Chickasaw Nation, MSC's service area comprises small towns with a low cost of living and numerous natural attractions which offer fishing, hiking, and camping. Conveniently located within a two-hour drive of Dallas and Oklahoma City, MSC offers the best of both worlds: small-town life with access to big-city offerings

Specific Job Functions—Dean of Online:

1. Provide overall vision and supervision for developing and maintaining distance education programs that respond to workforce, economic, and community needs.
2. Establish an appropriate vision for the School of Online with goals clearly tied to the college's mission and coordinate efforts to achieve those goals.
3. Collaborate with campus departments, community partners, and marketing to develop relevant programs, marketing campaigns, and communications that expand the reach and significantly increase enrollment in distance programs.
4. Ensure compliance with accreditation, federal and state regulations, and distance education standards, and serve as the institutional liaison for Quality Matters, NC-SARA, and other quality assurance programs.

5. Provide leadership for online faculty, including oversight of teaching effectiveness, student feedback, and ongoing professional development opportunities.
6. Coordinate online course development, reviews, and quality assurance processes to maintain high academic standards.
7. Support innovation in teaching and learning by promoting adoption of new instructional technologies, open educational resources (OER), and alternative delivery models such as hybrid, i-flex, and competency-based education.
8. Revise, enforce, and provide all policies and procedures related to the School of Online, and coordinate efforts with remote faculty to align with the college's strategic plan.
9. Be an effective communication link between remote faculty and college administration, ensuring consistent messaging and feedback.

11. Actively support and communicate Academic Council recommendations and institutional updates to remote faculty.
12. Coordinate efforts with Deans and Program Chairs in preparing and submitting online course schedules.
13. Collaborate with the Registrar, Institutional Research, and Financial Aid to ensure appropriate scheduling and tracking of online student data for compliance and reporting.
14. Prepare and gather academic data as needed and assist Deans and Program Chairs in using data to support decision-making and planning.
15. Assist in coordinating assessment data collection and reporting for online programs and courses.
16. Lead the online enrollment with strategic enrollment and retention initiatives, and by working with the academic resources center, student services, advising, and admissions to support online learner success.
17. Coordinate with the Dean and campus service departments to ensure that online student services, including virtual orientation, advising, tutoring, and other support resources, provide a high-quality, student-centered experience.
18. Participate in local and state professional organizations and technical consortiums to represent and advocate for the School of Online.
19. Represent the School of Online in institutional planning and advocate for online students and faculty in resource allocation and policy development.

20. Coordinate with the Public Information Officer to promote the growth and visibility of the School of Online through outreach and communication strategies.
21. Collaborate with the Department of External Affairs to develop and maintain external partnerships and pursue grant opportunities that support online learning, workforce development, and program innovation.
22. Oversee and manage relationships with third-party vendors and institutional partnerships to ensure alignment with institutional goals, compliance with academic and operational standards, and effective collaboration in areas such as instructional design, program development, and online program management.
